

Cambium Networks Announces Nasdaq Delisting

March 26, 2026 at 9:25 AM EDT

HOFFMAN ESTATES, Ill., March 26, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Cambium Networks Corporation ("Cambium Networks" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: CMBM), a leading global provider of networking solutions, announced today that on March 25, 2026, the Company received a notice from the Nasdaq Hearings Panel (the "Panel") that the Panel has determined to delist the ordinary shares of Cambium Networks from The Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq") due to the Company's failure to comply with the terms of the Panel's December 3, 2025 decision (the "Decision"). The Company had been granted an extension for continued listing on Nasdaq subject to the Company's adherence to certain milestones set forth in the Decision by which the Company was to file certain periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Trading in the Company's ordinary shares will be suspended at the open of trading on March 27, 2026.

The Company is considering whether it will request that the Nasdaq Listing and Hearing Review Council review this Decision. Trading in our ordinary shares is expected to initially move to the OTC Pink Limited tier and then go into the Expert Market. Investors may experience reduced liquidity, less transparency and greater price volatility on these markets.
