PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Cambium Networks Corporation (the "Company") has determined that it is unable to file, without unreasonable effort or expense, its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2025 (the "Form 10-Q") by the prescribed filing due date because the Company requires additional time to finalize its assessment of internal control over financial reporting and to complete certain closing processes and procedures relating to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024 (the "Form 10-K"), and cannot complete its Form 10-Q until the Form 10-K has been completed and filed. The Company does not expect to file its 10-Q within the extension period.

Cambium Networks previously determined that it is unable to file, without unreasonable effort or expense, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024 by the prescribed filing due date because the Company requires additional time to finalize the Company's consolidated financial statements and finalize its assessment of internal control over financial reporting and related disclosures. In addition to the material weaknesses disclosed in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2024, the Company identified certain material weaknesses in its preliminary assessment of internal control over financial reporting for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024 related to Allowance for Credit Losses, Customer Incentives, and Information Technology General Controls. The Company has initiated and will continue to implement measures designed to improve its internal control over financial reporting to remediate these material weaknesses with oversight from the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and assistance from its external advisors, as well as implementing additional processes and controls to address the underlying causes associated with the material weaknesses.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. All statements contained in this notification that do not relate to matters of historical fact should be considered forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding anticipated results for the three months ended March 31, 2025, the material weaknesses in the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2024, and the Company's expectations regarding the timing of the filing of the Form 10-K and Form 10-Q. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations.

These statements are neither promises nor guarantees, but involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other important factors that may cause the Company's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations include, but are not limited to the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures; the potential for additional material weaknesses in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting or other potential control deficiencies of which the Company is not currently aware or which have not been detected; the risk that the completion and filing of the Form 10-K and Form 10-Q will take longer than expected; additional information that may arise during the finalization of the Form 10-K and Form 10-Q; and the risks discussed in detail in "Item 1A. Risk Factors" of the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, as updated by its other filings with the SEC. The Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of future events, new information or otherwise, except as required by law.
